

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JEFFREY G. LAWRENCE

Chief Master Sergeant Jeffrey G. Lawrence is the command chief master sergeant of the 6th Air Mobility Wing, MacDill Air Force Base, Florida. The wing's overall mission is to provide worldwide air refueling and airlift support in support of the Air Force's Global Reach, Global Power mission, and to provide support to the men and women of U.S. Central Command and U.S. Special Operations Command, to include 52 mission partners that call MacDill home.

As the command chief master sergeant, he serves as the liaison between the wing commander and the enlisted force assigned to the 6th Air Mobility Wing. Chief Lawrence advises the commander on enlisted force concerns and maintains an endless vigilance on matters affecting the health, morale, and welfare of the force.

He graduated from Riverview High School, Sarasota, FL in June and entered the Air Force in September of 1978. He has held key management and leadership positions in the maintenance and communications career fields to include Air Staff and MAJCOM-level action officer.
